And it starts... sometime around midnight or at least that's when you lose yourself for a minute or two

As you stand... under the barlights and the band plays some song about forgetting yourself for a while and the piano's this melancholy soundcheck to her smile
And that white dress she's wearing you haven't seen her for a while

But you know... that she's watching She's laughing, she's turning she's holding her tonic like a crux The room suddenly spinning she walks up and asks how you are so you can smell her perfume you can see her lying naked in your arms

And so there's a change... in your emotions and all of these memories come rushing like feral waves to your mind of the curl of your bodies like two perfect circles entwined and you feel hopeless, and homelss and lost in the haze of the wine

And she leaves... with someone you don't know but she makes sure you saw her she looks right at you and bolts As she walks out the door your blood boiling your stomach in ropes and when your friends say what happened you look like you've seen a ghost

And you walk... under the streetlights and you're too drunk to notice that everyone is staring at you and you so care what you look like the world is falling around you

You just have to see her

and you know that she'll break you in two
