i can see them every day there on my wall now and when the girls come out to play ,i'm never alone now and i convince myself that they'd pick me if i met them some day since i met you ,the months stopped changing these girls won't do.

better than miss january
fitter than miss february girl,you make me hotter than july ,whoa-whoa august right through to november your more cool than miss december you're my world now your my calendar girl i first saw you back in may you knew my sister and i would bug you every day by taking your picture i convince myself that you're not feeling the same way but on a friday night in june you said 'throw the calendar girls away' since i met you the nmonths stopped changing these girls won't do

you're much safer than the others girl,now i'm not caught by my mother ,girl

you're my world
now your my calendar girl
you're my world
