Swallow fire
chew the wine you can't control your body take your pill sell your will Vicadin is so in style I'll tell you one thing sugar we're not standing still dance party in the parking lot dance party in the landfill cashing in on car crash scenes in the magazines

life in the wrong city you can't, you can't, you can't compete
life in the wrong city

I had a dream of stereos building cities, silicone and tin on the ashes of your on the ashes of your eyelids

Solid state hard wired a machine of lips set me on fire Hear them singing
can't you hear them ringing?
I'll tell you one thing sugar We're not standing still Dance party in the parking lot
dance party in the land fill

You be the bullet
I'll be the gun
