We are living in your trust back to square one again this is becoming what is was meant to For self-exploitation for meaningless narcissism this is becoming an encyclopedia for our ideas Suck it up and shoot ten uploadclick stop type- I'll sign up to finger fuck your wasted coke bottles now upload Turn to the left turn to the right try to capture the pain the juxtaposition between your dark silhouette and the stark white wall Capture the ambiguous expression the one that forms a marriage between concept and form You might be beautiful lets find out- Suck it down suck it up a throat swallowing thousands to sing you to sleep.
