Dear brother, there's been a change in your life.
Meet me tomorrow down by the river-side.
Ohhhh (?)

What do you leave behind when you don't look back?
This heart was filled with gold, now it's all gone black.

Dear brother, there's been a change in your life.
Meet me tomorrow down by the river side.

There's more to love than what you know.
A change of living, a change of soul.
What hurts you now, will never know.
I guess it's growing old.

There's more to love than what you know.
A change of living, a change of soul.
What hurts you now, will never know.
A change of living.
A change of living.
Yeah, it's a change of living
