I'd like to stay a while but i can't i'm confined to the corner and growing sick inside who is this beast where is my friend
there is no trust this is the end you've swallowed time white paramour wasting all my time again i'm hangin' on how long i don't know when this distant life

i wake up and i cut it and i get up and i cut it and i lick it and i stick it and then i go around again i choke it and i blow it and i'm bloated yeah i know it but i gotta keep going gotta gotta go around again

i gotta keep going gotta gotta go up again can't stop you from the depth you're in

wasting all my time again i'm hanging on how long i don't know when
this distant life
i heard you leaving
i don't believe it
when will you return wayward foolish friend?

ahhhhhh!

you're aging fast your skull is thick keep drinking darkness stupid prick and i'd rather die than watch you drown breathing the dust and shoving coffee down you swallowed time white paramour

and i'm hangin' on how long i don't know when
this distant life

i've let go
my let down i'm leaving
let's leave town
