When do we start coming down
Tell me why the memories shine
I'm scared of being left behind
When do we start falling
When do we start coming down
Stuck inside your hometown
I'm scared of being left alone
Since we start coming round

Where did we go wrong
Do we start coming down
Where did we go wrong
Tell me why the memories shine
Where did we go wrong
I'm scared of being left behind
When do we start falling

Tell me when we start coming down
I'm scared of being left behind
Where did we go wrong
Tell me when we start falling
