Devils and angels on this old street
22 years and I'm still asleep at home
It's all that I know
Most of my friends have all moved away
Gone off to college to find their weight in gold rhythm

Every day is a life time
Back to the beginning again
And we slave for a life time
For a Life time

There's nothing real on my T.V. screen
It's all a network reality
And it shows, and a broken home

Most of my friends are all moving back
To a life less certain than yesterday
And its fact that step remains

Every day is a life time
Back to the beginning again
But we slave for a life time
And we'll walk free in the end.
Every day is a lifetime
Back to the beginning again
And we slave for a life time For a life time

Under the sun
Were all working hard not sure if we will pay
Can you believe that the last 2 years
Left us poor and here today
Devils and Angels on this old street
And they've got the same secrets as you and me
So let's open our doors
Let's open our doors
For the world to see
Every day is a life time
Back to the beginning again
We slave for a life time
We'll run free in the end
Every day is a life time

Back to the beginning again
And we slave for a life time
Every day is a life time, is a life time
Under the sun
Every day is a life time, is a life time

In the background:"Devils and angels on this old street
Devils and Angels and you and me"
