Dying on the screen
Switch the lights on back again
I'd rather stay inside
No matter what you say

Did you know?
Caesar was my only son
How come, you couldn't see it all this time?
Watch the fire

Loud enough to let us hear
The fear, the sounds of lives to disappear
Kiss the fire

Oh, what a strange night
Just enough fireflies to burn my skin
Fool me, I've been looking for a saint these days
Fool me now

Blind me, build the walls around me, I won't mind
I don't mind

Caesar was my only son
How come, you couldn't see it all this time?
Watch the fire

Loud enough to let us hear
The fear, the sounds of lives to disappear
Kiss the fire
