Turning, what page are you on? What function do you serve?

Is purpose the myth of mankind's obsession?
I've given up wondering why I'm here.

Wasting all my time, As my life... It passes me on by.

"I Declare this Land in the name of Lost Hope"

-Grab your Martyr and crucify.

There's just no way to know... There's just no need to know.

-I've spent too many days contemplating. Questions without Answers.

To me there's some things just beyond knowledge

Wasting all your time, While your life... It passes you on by,

Stop trying to feed the false sense of security.

-Why do I need to know? Tell me why...

There's just no way to know... There's just no need to know.

-I've spent too many nights contemplating. Questions
without Answers.

Wipe the SLATE CLEAN. Wipe the SLATE CLEAN.

It's Time that you realize NOTHING.

What Page are you on?

-I've spent too many years contemplating. Questions
without Answers.
