Some say teeth are hard to swallow, some say forgiveness will come tomorrow.
So fed up with your damn fascade... So fed up with your self-ego god.
-Get back on your feet, You called yourself a man,
Remember you asked for this.
(I've been waiting so fucking long, I've been taming this need for so Long.)

Revenge is so sweet, rewarding yet obsolete, is it a matter of defeat?
Time to face... Time to taste the SuckerPunch.

Some say actions, speak louder than words, Not all conflicts are nouns and verbs.
So fed up with your damn fascade... So fed up with your self-ego god.
-Get back on your feet, You called yourself a man,
Remember you asked for this.
(Your reflection looks so odd... With your head through the mirror.)

Revenge is so sweet, rewarding yet obsolete, is it a matter of defeat?
Time to face... Time to taste the SuckerPunch.

They say violence never solves anything. Except your existence.
They'll be another to take your place.
