The truth that never wants to leave you The hand that always feeds you The eye that only ever sees you The touch that never leaves you

I can't love you any more I won't stop trying Who is it owns this place I stand in? You can't love me any more But don't stop trying Who is it owns this place we stand in?

The truth that always wants to find you The hand that never beats you The eye that never seems to judge you The touch that always warms you

The truth that never wants to leave you The hand that always feeds you The eye that only ever sees you The touch that never leaves you

I can't love you any more I won't stop trying Who is it owns this place I stand in? You can't love me any more But don't stop trying Who is it owns this place we stand in?
