i been watching you for a decade now and i think i got authority to say, i think i know what you're all about you fashion punks can all just go away a thousand spikes, perfectly placed, your hair done up so fucking nice, practice your sneer in the bathroom mirror, as if you were johnny rotten spice how much did you pay, just to look that way, $20 a week for the 'do and a thousand for the spikes and leather too you're a fucking joke and i hope that you go broke, most people can't afford to look the way you do but that's ok cuz you'll be gone changing your tastes with the seasons, you don't belong and you won't last long, you're here for all the wrong reasons
