i no longer know what to think, confusion has pushed me to the brink, disrespect, your actions sting. you have changed everything don't know what to think, not anymore, don't know what to think, you fucking whore don't know what to think, all your lies, don't know what to think, you i despise now we've reached the fucking end, but what does that mean, you have torn apart my life, right at the fucking seams woke up this morning . . . my life imploded, walk away from the fucked up hole and its time to start again, enjoy the Rutt you've landed in. you are not my fucking friend.
