piss off the only two that came out to see your band, then demand a hundred bucks in addition to the free beer in your hand a few months later that club is gone "fuck em they ripped off the artists", fuck you now where are you gonna play maybe it's your fault they couldn't stay venues can't survive without a little bit of green, so celebrate the shitholes that give life to the scene you think he makes a lot of money just by booking unknown punk bands? that's why he drives a beat up toyota that's why he can't afford a new pair of pants, maybe he doesn't give a fuck about the scene, but he's providing something you desperately need, a place to play a place to go without this club there is no show
fuck the bands
