"Through The Walls"

Disconnecting all my fears,
Wishing I could disappear like most people do
Dig into a deeper hole,
Superstition takes control of all we knew

Remember how to believe
(In what you're chasing after)
Ignore the things you can't change

After all, I'm a sucker
Should've never tried to run
Through the walls, that you built up
Could've knocked them all down,
Had your chance but you missed it

Climbing in and out of this,
Interactive consciousness
Don't wake me up
Struggling with dialect,
What to take and to reject
It's hard to break

Remember how to believe
(In what's before and after)
Forget your destination

After all, I'm a sucker
Should've never tried to run
Through the walls, that you built up
Could've knocked them all down,
Had your chance but you missed it

I'm not waiting for apathy
Learn to move it aside
Always paying attention
To you

Disconnecting all my fears,
Wishing I could disappear

After all, I'm a sucker

Should've never tried to run
Through the walls, that you built up
Could've knocked them all down,
Had your chance but you missed it

Had your chance but you missed it
Had your chance, but you missed it
