(GUITAR INTRO)

I know love makes the world go 'round and life is just a dream-o

And some people play ball out of bounds but it ain't gonna change the game

There's too much garbage in the sink, gonna take a lot of drain-o

And life's so fast, I'm afraid to blink and people still live in chains

But even in the rain, in the rain ...
You shine all day long

Your heart sings the words to an old love song

And it comes to me on a radio

Somewhere deep inside
Sometimes when you turn the key the gauge only indicates empty

And people that run this world today, they only have half a brain

Some folks drive a pick-up truck, some folks drive a Bentley

But sooner or later we'll all wind up over in the break down lane

But even in the rain, in the rain ...
You shine all day long

Your heart sings the words to an old love song

And it comes to me on a radio

Somewhere deep inside

Somewhere deep inside

You lit a fire that's always burning

Somewhere deep inside

You greased a wheel that's always turning

And keeps me rolling straight to you

(HARP SOLO)

You shine all day long

Your heart sings the words to an old love song

And it comes to me on a radio

Somewhere deep inside

I know love makes the world go 'round and life is just a
dream-o
