(GUITAR & HARP INTRO)

You think I'd learn to take a step back

You think I'd learn to take a fall

You think I'd learn how to walk like a cat along the wall
But there's no rhyme and there's no reason

And I just might get left behind, yeah, yeah

And I go crazy when your heart's beatin' right next to mine
Here I go over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind

I see that light so bright streamin' in

Over again, over again
(HARP DITTY)

Maybe the first time we got lucky

Maybe we knew that from the start

Baby, but this time every word comes straight from the heart

So live and learn and take your chances

Walk and talk and tell it true, yeah, yeah

And every step will bring that distant shore into view
Here we go over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind

I see that light so bright streamin' in

Over again, over again

(HARP DITTY)

Over again, yeah, yeah

Over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind

I see that light so bright streamin' in

Over again, their they go

Over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind

I see that light so bright streamin' in

Over again, yeah yeah

Over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind

I see that light so bright streamin' in

Over again, here we go, here we go

Over again

I feel that sail fillin' up with the wind...
