(INTRO)

There's a lotta folks down at the island

That follow that astrology

Some got a chart of the heavens

And some got a fancy degree

But me I got a pick-up

And I drive it like a Fourth of July

And that's where I seen the vision

When it fell right out of the sky

It said

Follow, follow the southern cross

Leave your luck in Mexico

There ain't no way to get lost

Cause there ain't no place to go

So I bought me a ticket to Texas

And I hopped on a plane to Peru

I met a little lady from Chile

And she fed me a tropical root

Now I'm down in Tierra del Fuego

And nothin' around me is right

I think I got a case of lumbago

But it's better than the northern lights

I gotta

Follow, follow the southern cross

Leave your luck in Mexico
There ain't no way to get lost
Cause there ain't no place to go
(HORN SOLO)
So I paddled out to Easter Island
About as fast as I could go
I saw an albatross on the horizon
And the stone heads all in a row
I found the secret of navigation
And the mystery of the Milky Way
Now I'm livin' in the constellations
Tell me what more I can say
You gotta
Follow, follow the southern cross
And leave your luck in Mexico
There ain't no way to get lost
Cause there ain't no place to go
Whoa!
(HORN STUFF)
