Shit faced, fumbling in a dark place
Drinking in the last days
This street looks just like the next street
Bumble fuck on repeat

This time you should have stopped
But where's the fun?
You should have stopped but where's the fun?
The outcome the only friend you ever had
Is setting off with a rich son

So sure she was like a brother
'Til you dropped another
So sure you kept it under covers
Until you knew you loved her

Now you can't think straight because you're not straight
In the back of her mother's car
In the back of her mother's car
No secret's too safe and how you can't stay
In the back of her mother's car
In the back of her mother's car

Now you can't think straight because you're not straight
In the back of her mother's car
In the back of her mother's car
No secret's too safe and how you can't stay
Higher than the stars
