

The Pains Of Being Pure At Heart "Even In Dreams"

Visit "Even In Dreams" on MotoLyrics.com

You can drive around all night with the radio on high and wonder what it's like to be liked and never feel out of time

You're not the only one, you're just my only one

Even in dreams I could not betray you

If I could shut my eyes and disconnect my mind there's just one thought I'd think I'd think it all the time

'Cuz there's nobody like you
Is that why they don't like you?
You are cold and dead to their jokes

Yeah, there's nobody like you
Is that why they don't like you like I do?

And I do
