Beauty was forsaken
And now she's on the ground
Broken by a patron
Of memory and sound

Were do we go?
When all of the world
Decides we're not worth anything
Wat do we feel?
When silence is cold and dark
And death says yes again

Is it all just medicine?

It's the first time again

Where do we go?
When all of the world
Decides we're not worth anything
My love
And we're waiting here
As death says yes again

Is it all just medicine?
