I battle to see a way out of here
The world is so dark, the history so clear
And all you can be can bring you to tears
You pull it apart - surrender to fear
Surrender to fear
Surrender to fear

Halo of Lies
Can I free myself from myself
Broken inside
Can I bleed the poison from the vow
(And they talk to me, talk to me, talk to me, talk to me)

I battle to see a glimmer of hope
We hold on so tight 'til they cut the rope
And all we can be can all end in tears

We tear it away - surrender to fear

Halo of Lies
Can I free myself from myself
Broken inside
Can I bleed the poison from the vow

Here comes illusion again
Here comes the heartbeat of sin

(And they talk to me, talk to me, talk to me, talk to me)

Halo of Lies
Can I free myself from myself
Broken inside
Can I bleed the poison from the vow

(And they talk to me, talk to me, talk to me, talk to me)
