I want to go
Where roses grow
Feels like inside my mind

I long to go
Where the roses grow
Feels like it's in my mind

I need to go
The world must know
About the light inside

You like the show
But even so
I feel the burning tide

Burning tide

A new morning - wait for your time
But still we question why
A promise kept - throughout all time
But we question why

But I like the feeling I get
I'm so tired of wasting it
He broke the chains, saved my life
Now I think it's time to use it

I want to go
Where the roses grow
More than inside my mind

I want to go
Where roses grow
Feel life inside the Light

I feel the light
Feel the life
Feel life inside the Light
