"Love Like You"

I'll be the first to say,
"I do love you so"
Be the last to walk away
From what we know

You can't invent a Jones like us in this world
It only happens once upon a time for boys and girls

I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to be in love the way I do
Better is a day standing by your side
Your heart is like a castle in my sky
I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to really be my rainbow
I could only start to imagine how
We survived to see this day

Only if I had the words to paint the moon
I would paint it on a star just for you
Then we'd get inside a boat made of clouds
And we'd never turn around we'd go all out

I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to be in love the way I do
Better is a day standing by your side
Your heart is like a castle in my sky
I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to really be my rainbow
I could only start to imagine how
We survived to see this day

And mockingbirds they sing upon my tree
And the tower bells they ring and I believe
And I'm askin you to be my everything

I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to be in love the way I do
Better is a day standing by your side
Your heart is like a castle in my sky
I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to really be my rainbow

I could only start to imagine how
We survived to see this day

I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to really be my rainbow
I'll never find another love like you
Who wants to be in love the way I do
