Trigger holding too tight
I need some release
All or nothing tries to taunt me
Show me your true needs
I can tell you anything

Still not sure, what you're saying
Spell it for me
I'm begging please I concede
Near hopeless, hopeless

They could own me, hold me down
Pretend to console me
They could only fight themselves
Could they even?
I can't show you innocence

Still not sure, what you're saying
Spell it for me
I'm begging please I concede
Near hopeless, leaves us open
Still not sure, what you're saying
Spell it for me
I'm begging please I concede
Near hopeless, hopeless
I concede
I can tell you anything
