First time he laid eyes on her
He kissed his heart goodbye
He nearly drove right off the road
When all she did was smile
But when she burned up their first dinner
And lay crying on the couch
That's the moment that he fell in love
From the inside out
She loved the way he always brought
Flowers to her door
And took her to new places that
She'd never been before
But when he lost his job and he lost his pride
And his heart was filled with doubt
That's when she new how much she loved that man
From the inside out
From the inside love is stronger
Than the outside looking in
As the tears flow you learn what love's about
From the inside out
She has watched her raven hair
Slowly turn to gray
And since the day that he retired
He just gets in the way
Now their not much to look at
Two old faces in the crowd
But they could write the book of love
From the inside out
From the inside love is stronger
Than the outside looking in
As the years go you learn what loves about
From the inside out
