Living in a castle of broken dreams
All alone there was only me
I was thinking I was sinking fast
You came to rescue me at last
Just like Rapunzel I will let down my hair
And you will swear never to part
Just like Rapunzel I will let down my hair and
You'll be there
You'll be there
You'll be there
I was under a witches spell
Sending me to a private hell
You said a prayer that my soul would keep
You woke me up from the deepest sleep
If I saw you in a mirror up upon my wall
You would be the fairest of them all
If I met you in the moonlight
Glass slippers on my feet
You'd dance with me
You'd dance with me
