Eighteenth birthday she said "I'm on my way" Big bus covered in dust off to find a circus They'll make her jump through rings of fire She'll have to learn to walk that wire Walk that wire Her father's daughter here's what he taught her Dream big, don't quit, keep focused on it And never lose your hearts desire Look straight ahead and walk that wire Walk that wire Don't look down Walk that wire Don't look down Walk that wire And never lose your hearts desire Look straight ahead and walk that wire Walk that wire Don't look down Walk that wire Don't look down Walk that wire Walk that wire Walk that wire
