When I think of you
I think of all my dreams
I can't believe this dream
Didn't come true
I wonder where you are
I look up at the stars
And try to see as far
As wherever you are
But I know you're watching
I know you're watching
I know you're watching over me
Baby I know you're watching
I know you're watching
I know you're watching over me
Every day I tell myself that this is real
People don't know how it feels
I'm empty without you
There is always a reason
Girl it was meant to be
They like to think they know how I feel
But they don't know
No they don't know
