INTRO: Don't let lonely Monday come again

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on
Monday

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home

Your lips are warm on Friday night

The next two days you hold me tight

But when it's done, you always run

And I'm alone

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on
Monday

I'll be waiting for that one day you'll be mine

I'd give the world to keep you here

Why do you need to disappear

And when I press, you do your best

To stall for time

I wouldn't try to own your soul

You can be free

I only want you here each night

Loving me

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on

We gotta let this feeling grow or let it end

You say you care well if you do

Don't ever go I'm begging you

Don't let lonely Monday come again

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on
Monday

Will you be staying after Sunday or go home on
