I think I lost my mind
It's been a year and a half
And all that's left is tearing me up inside
Its tearing me up inside
Cuz everything I wanted to be was all for you
But you couldn't see that
Im losing my head over memories

And no matter what you say
Ill never let you fade away
And im sorry for all that I couldn't be
And no matter what you do
Just know that I will be here for you
And I will be here forever
I will be here forever

I think I lost my mind
And I just cant begin to describe
Anything that's going on Your all I see in my dreams
And I know it may be hard to believe just be my everything

And no matter what you say
I'll never let you fade away
And im sorry for all that I couldn't be
And no matter what you do
Just know that I will be here for you
And I will be here forever
Forever

I still believe that there's something left
I still believe that there's something left
I still believe that there's something left
I still believe that there's something left
There must be something left

No matter what you say
I'll never let you fade away
And I'm sorry for all that I couldn't be
And no matter what you do
Just know that I'll be here for you

And I will be here forever
I will be here forever
