You're futuring
So you can sing
You're futuring
So you can sing songs about times that were tough
All about how you lost at love

You're futuring
So you can tell
You're futuring
So you can tell stories that they won't believe
Like a coffee table book that nobody reads

You're happy to write your own eulogy
Now you can't wait to die so that you can see
See who shows up, hear what they say
I wonder if they'll miss you anyway
You're futuring
You're futuring
