I believed we were meant to be
But i lost that thought somewhere along this road to happiness
Happiness
Is that what you call this Set me free

It's a little too late my heart can't wait
My forever is just a moment in your mind
Too far to go when you know there's nothing there to find

Good-bye to my dreams
They don't mean so much to me
They never came true
Leave it all up to you that i'm one only
One world behind in my mind

Can you hear me
Can you see
If you feel me
I'm ignoring you
Why don't you set me free

It's a little too late my heart can't wait
My forever is just a moment in your mind
Too far to go when you know there's nothing there to

Look around love is scarce round here
Does anybody know why we abuse love
Can you see
You kill me everytime
Can you see

It's a little too late my heart can't wait
My forever is just a moment in your mind
Too far to go when you know there's nothing there to

It's a little too late my heart can't wait

My forever is just a moment in your mind
It's a little too late my heart can't wait
Too far to go when you know there's nothing there to
