After all that you've done for me
Only a fool would leave
But i'm a fool and i am leaving
I did my best to fulfill my part
I tried to love you with all my heart

Say you're not gonna cry when we say good-bye
I know you'll find somebody who loves you
And when she comes along, darling you be strong
I know you'll find she'll gonna love you

After all that you've promised me
I'd be a fool to leave
But i'm a fool and yes i'm leaving
You always think you can buy my heart
But can you fill the missing part

Say you're not gonna cry when we say good-bye
I know you'll find somebody who loves you
And when she comes along darlin you be strong
I know you'll find she's gonna love you

It used to feel nice to know that you love me
But i feel strange when ya try to touch me
Blame on me maybe i'm confused
You're misunderstanding the way that i love you

Say you're not gonna cry when we say good-bye
I know you'll find somebody who loves you
And when she comes along, darling you be strong
I know you'll find she'll gonna love you

Say you're not gonna cry when we say good-bye
I know you'll find somebody who loves you
And when she comes along, darling you be strong
I know you'll find she'll gonna love you
