I guess i'll go on without you and i'm sorry i couldn't stay and play
I am worlds away from reality
Everything to me is just spinning now
How could i say it - i couldn't speak to you
Play the game reality's losing my ....
Minds deceiving me and i believe it

No one can compare to you
I dare this world to take you from me
I'm setting you free tonight
So long, so long, so long
I feel like it's not fair to dream
I'm scared i'm never going to see you again
In the night so long, so long, so long

How could i say it i almost see thru you
I know nothing at all - i just fall into you
Mind believes in me and i deceive it

No one can compare to you
I dare this world to take you from me
I'm setting you free tonight
So long, so long, so long

Like this:
In the night when i sleep and dream there you are
And i scream out your name, is it wrong
In the night when i sleep and i dream there you are
And i scream out your name is it wrong
I dare this world to take you from me
I'm setting free tonight
So long,so long, so long

I feel like it's not fair to dream
I'm scared i'm never going to see you again
In the night
So long, so long

No one can compare
No one, no one can compare to you

Do you care?
I dare this world to take you from me
I'm setting you free tonight
So long, so long, so long
I feel like it's not fair to dream
I'm scared, i'm scared, i'm scared

If i'm wrong then a hearts still frozen in time
And reality isn't mine
I'm wired and it's right to you
I'm wired and it's right to you
