"Day After Day"

Way up in the sky Over the city, over tokyo Silver light, summer moon You'll be over somebody's winter this afternoon While the dolphins swim in the sea You're going grey, my baby Still the war is waging endlessly Day after day, day after day Way up in the sky Over the city and lake erie You remember the flats, you were there Out every night mr moonlight Round and round and round we go Just like yesterday Way up in the sky Over the city where you sleep tonight The light outside your window blinks Hotel, hotel, hotel Open the blind and dream in a moonbeam When the war's finally over We'll meet again And pick up where we left off
