Hey baby I wanna know How much Did you get for your soul? You had the gospel When you were shackled to a tree Now you've got your freedom You sing for the money Soul Soul Soul Soul How much did ya How much did ya How much did ya get? Hey babe Tell me please How much Did you get for that sleaze? You finally made it Right up to the top Millions of kids are looking at you You say let them drink soda pop Soul Soul Soul Soul How much did ya How much did ya How much did ya get? Who's got soul? Who's got soul? From the african nation To the pepsi generation Who's got soul? Who's got soul? It dwell from tree to sea Every living entity Share the super soul We got super soul Who's got soul? Who could think that you're for real - A puppet in a cabaret To increase your wealth Baby realise yourself Hey baby I wanna know From the 'a-go-go' to the disco Where did you really go? You finally made it You're gonna make it rich As long as some poor bastard in africa Is lying in a ditch Soul Soul Soul Soul How much did ya How much did ya How much did ya get?
