Hey big lonely
How much for your body
Hey big lonely
How much for control
Are you ready for complete isolation
Are you ready to watch your kingdom overthrown

You keep running but your still right here
Disappearing behind your fear
You keep thinking what you need is out there
But baby you are still right here
YA Your still right here

Captured dolphin
Smiling in your net
I can see you drowning
But I can't come cut you out of this
Your a guilty survivor
Half alive half dead
So put down that crown baby and build yourself a bridge

You keep running but your still right here
Disappearing behind your fear
You keep thinking what you need is out there
But baby you are still right here
YA Your still right here
I gotta let you go
I gotta stop
How many warnings have I laughed off
Now I am sticking up for you saying
Enough's Enough's Enough's Enough's Enough's
Enough's Enough's Enough's Enough's Enough's

You keep running but your still right here
Disappearing behind your fear
You keep thinking what you need is out there
But baby you are still right here
YA Your still right here
Ya your still right here
Your still right here
