Now the time is almost done
The race for last is almost run
And almost paid
From where i stand, i've got a view
Out of all the miles of you
Where i wait
I know what's true
All about you
Through my window there's a sound
There's a face in every crowd
A lot like you
Is what you wanted what you took?
All the lines that leave you shook
Leave me cold
I know what's true
All about you
Someone's knocking at my door
Down my stairs, i hear you call
But i won't wake
The seconds move the time along
And all my silence seems so long

I don't break

I know what's true

All about you

I know what's true

All about you

I know what's true

All about you
