You were at the Relais in a shirt and tie...
you cut your hair with a scissor at the Hotel Relais
jealous trees call you to me
even the trees seem to whisper to me.

I'll love you till the world stops spinning
I'll love you till the world stops winning.
well, in the radio.

People go to parties when they get a wife... thirst (?)
you listen to the records in a shirt and tie.
the stupid and the stupid and the meaningless drivell.
the stupid and the people and the meaningless lyric.
i can tell the people when they do the hands and knees

Jealous trees call you Denis
even the trees seem to whisper Denis

I'll love till the world stops spinning
I'll love till the world stops slimming

Get a car and do the twist
Paint it blue and do the dog
Twist
