"Shot Glass"

Shot glass, shot glass, I hate you
And all the stupid shit that you make me do
But when I line you up in a pretty little row
Shot glass, shot glass, I love you so

Shot glass, shot glass, I love you
You take away the pain and you drive away the blues
But if I spend another night on the floor
Shot glass, shot glass, you're out the fucking door

Shot glass, shot glass, I need you
You've always been with me through and through
The whiskey through my veins is always gonna flow
Shot glass, shot glass, I can't let you go
