All the boys are talking about her
They say I'm gonna have to live without her
But that's not the way that things are gonna work out

They say that she's been running around
That she's getting ready to put me down
But there's a few things that they'll never know about her

Cause she's got her own way of doing things
And she don't care what anybody thinks
She goes where she wants to go
And sees who she wants to see
And tonight she wants to see me

No I'm not saying that she's my girl
She's her own woman that's one thing sure
But when we're together I'm the luckiest guy in town
She wont make promises that she can't keep
But when we're together we're not counting sheep
And I'm sure that she would never let me down.

[Chorus]
Causes she's got her own way of living her life
And she's not looking to be anybody's wife
She goes where she wants to go
And sees who she wants to see
And tonight she wants to see me

Now some guys say a girl like her is nothing but bad news
But if I had to do it all again I would still chose
A look like hers is unlike any other look than i have ever
Cause we can see each other when we wanna be together but we both can still feel free

[Chorus]
