Will the circle be unbroken?
Is the last word ever spoken?
She drives a red mustang, have you seen her?
She drives a red mustang, how I need her
You give me that look that goes right through me
You say "hey, it's private property"

Jigsaw, jigsaw, all you say is you know it's a law
Jigsaw, jigsaw, there ain't no time,
Baby can you change your mind?

I heard the noise in number 9
You with a very close friend of mine
I drive halfway around the world in a mustang
To get away from that girl in a mustang
You in my arms when the morning comes
I'm right back where I started from

Jigsaw, jigsaw, all you say is you know it's a law
Jigsaw, jigsaw, there ain't no time,
Baby can you change your mind?

Will the circle be unbroken?
Is the last word ever spoken?
I should have known it from the start, it's forever
You should have told me from the start, it's forever
You burn my bridges, burn my big brown shoes
Hey, turn around now, burn my blues

Jigsaw, jigsaw, all you say is you know it's a law
Jigsaw, jigsaw, there ain't no time,
Baby can you change your mind?
