"Lean Back, Lean Forward"

Three beers, it's Wednesday
I'm watching money exchanging
Fall back with answers
While my friends are getting high
Lean back, lean forward
No one's moving onward

Did you know how much you've hurt me?
Did you know how much you've hurt me now?
Did you know how much you've hurt me?

Lean back, lean forward
Bend over
They're out to get me
But I won't sell that shame
Still nice to know that someone here still wants me

Did you know how much you've hurt me?
Did you know how much you've hurt me now?
Did you know how much you've hurt me now?
Did you know how much you've hurt me?
