"Peace Of Mind"

All the things I've said and all the things I've done have made her feel bad again. Now she's seeing someone to sort out what's wrong and made her feel sad again.

She's going to know how to be again, she's going to see love decline again.
And in the place where she still is red. I'll bring presents and kisses and...

I'm doing it all for her to find some peace of mind, I'm doing it for her to find some peace of mind, I'm doing it all for her to find some peace of mind, I'm doing it all for her to find some peace of mind.
