I'm A Caveman Feeling like a Slave Man
This Rock Is Knocking Me Down
Someone Help Me, Someone Tell Me
Why Are We Born To Suffer and Die, Die, Die

River Run, River Run
River Run, River Run to the Sea
River Run From You All Over Me
River Run, River Run

From The Rock Sprang Clear Crystal Water
And It Sang As It Flowed
All You're Weeping, All Your Suffering
Let's You Know Your Joy, Joy, Joy

River Run, River Run
River Run, River Run to the Sea
River Run From You All Over Me
River Run, River Run
Let It Flow

Then The Water Formed a Circle
With No Beginning and No End
So I Cast Off My Apparel
And I Dove Right In

River Run, River Run
River Run, River Run to the Sea
River Run From You All Over Me
River Run, River Run

All the Popping and the Hissing
The Charges in the Air
Feel the Current and Try and Tell Me
That There's Nothing There, There, There
River Run, River Run
River Run, River Run to the Sea
River Run From You All Over Me
River Run, River Run
