I got a secret that keeps me feelin' fine

It's not a lotion, drink or potion and it makes it everytime,

It's that little lovin' you give me everyday,

It's that little lovin' that keeps me here to stay, yeah

I live and breath just in your embrace,

I wear a grin no vitamin could ever put upon my face,

It's that little lovin' every single day,

It's that little lovin', ah-ha, that keeps the Doctor away

You keep it comin', That's why I'm so satisfied

That little lovin', Best medication I've tried

It keeps it comin', My remedy night and day

That little love keeps the Doctor away, yeah

Your tender body snuggles up to mine

You better slow dance full of romance and I'll turn in on a dime,

It's that little lovin' you give me everyday,

It's that little lovin' that keeps me here to stay, yeah

It's such a pleasure to never get uptight,

You got the style, you got the smile that keeps my circulation right

Little lovin' every single day,

It's that little lovin', ah-ha, that keeps the Doctor away

You keep it comin', That's why I'm so satisfied

That little lovin', Best medication I've tried

It keeps it comin', My remedy night and day

That little love keeps the Doctor away, yeah

(Little lovin'... Ooh-Hoo-Hoo)

(Little lovin'... Yeah)

I feel fantastic, I feel like I could fly

It's nothing new, it's quiet and true, it's just an artificial high

Little lovin' every single day,

It's that little lovin', ah-ha, that keeps the Doctor away

You keep it comin', That's why I'm so satisfied

That little lovin', Best medication I've tried

It keeps it comin', My remedy night and day

That little love keeps the Doctor away, yeah

You keep it comin', That's why I'm so satisfied

That little lovin', Best medication I've tried

It keeps it comin', My remedy night and day

That little love keeps the Doctor away, yeah
