I will sit quiet as you cannot see
If only I could tell them that i must break free I want to hear your story how,
You came so close to pushing a pram You're mapped out on the floor and you don't give a damn
I'm nothing but a poet
And I know that,

We learnt to love
We learnt to love the only way
And I can't understand,
why you, cannot remember

I know something that took your fancy you happily lead to take your virginity Darling, I think it's quite sad To sober up, you start a fight You blame last nite on the smirnoff ice!
but smirnoff isn't clothes off and you know that,

You learnt to love
You learnt to love the only way I can't understand,
why you, cannot remember

We learnt to love
We learnt to love the only way
And I can't understand,
why you, cannot remember
