To live like common people
I never think I'll do
And so my love I give into this dark

Flowers in the daytime
And Lucifer at night
This woman said I'm torn between two lives

Visions of your lovers holding in some dreadful lights
Wishing they would never be apart
It's so hard, how can I hold on
To someone I can't have?
Obsessed with all the things that we could do,

Take me on a night drive
And take me home again
The quiet trip where we will meet the end
To live like common people
I never think I'll do
In defiance of a love never realized
